

Credible Sources - Literature Review and Article Selection (30 points)

Description: In Part 2 of this assignment, you will use the “burning question” you formed in Part 1 to identify key search words or terms, enter these key terms in a credible search engine to explore peer-reviewed journal publications, and finally, select a peer-reviewed journal publication that best answers your “burning question”. Review “Credible Sources Assignment: Overview” document for full details and grading rubric.

1. 2 points. Restate your “burning question” in the most specific, concise wording possible. Incorporate suggestions proved in class and/or from Part 1 feedback when restating your “burning question”.
2. 2 points. What changes have you made to your “burning question” based course readings, discussions, or other feedback and why? If no changed have been made, please indicate how you used course content or prior experience to develop your “burning question”.
3. 5 points. Provide a bulleted list of at least 5 key search words or terms (0.5 point per term), AND indicate why you selected each term (0.5 point per rationale). Identify keywords or search terms that you plan to use when searching for peer-reviewed publications. Suggestions for how to identify and use search terms can be found using the IIT Galvin Library - Keywords \(How do I find articles in databases?\)
4. 1 point. How many publications resulted when using your key words/terms to search for peer-reviewed publications using a credible search engine?
Visit the IIT Galvin Library Search Page use (IIT login information when prompted) to begin a search using the keywords/terms identified above. Narrow your search to “articles” published in peer reviewed journals (please use journal articles only, not book chapters or other file types).
5. 1 point. Select and upload the peer-reviewed journal article that best answers your question.
Download the full-text PDF of this article and upload PDF copy of this article when submitting Part 2 of this assignment in Blackboard.
6. 5 points. Please cite your reference for your article in APA7 format.
See American Psychological Association \(APA\) formatting - Version 7 for instructions.
7. 2 points. When was the article published? Is it still relevant or are there more recent publications that better answer your question?
8. 2 points. What journal was this article published in? What is the aim of the journal? What is it trying to accomplish?
9. 2 points. Who are the authors of this article? What are their credentials or qualifications?
10. 2 points. Are these authors credible? Why or why not? Provide examples of things that could impact the credibility of an author.

11. 2 points. What affiliations, funding sources, conflicts of interest, or disclosures are mentioned? How might these factors impact credibility?
12. 2 points. In your own words, summarize the purpose or objective of this article. Is it a review of works by others or reporting the results of a single study?
13. 2 points. Based on all the information you found, is your article trustworthy? Visit the BYU Evaluating Credibility page for tips. Explain your decision.
